Home Inventory

Your furniture, appliances, clothing, electronic goods, linens, décor, sports or hobby equipment, etc. are all considered personal property. You may own a lot more than you realize! Comparing the value of your belongings to the personal property or contents limit listed in your home insurance policy helps make sure that you have enough insurance to replace them. An up-to-date home inventory helps with this. An inventory also makes filing a claim a lot easier. It is really hard to remember everything that you had after a loss. The claims process goes much smoother if you have a listing of everything that you can refer to at the time of a loss.

Childress Insurance Agency highly recommends that you have documentation of your personal property in case of a loss. We are providing you with this inventory checklist. We know that it may not be completely comprehensive. You may have additional items that are not covered in the checklist. Please add additional sheets if necessary so that you may have a complete list of what you own. We also suggest that you videotape or take photographs of your belongings and keep it with the checklist. As they say... a picture is worth a thousand words.

Don't forget about what is in your closets, your garage, attic, basement, under your bed, in your drawers and cabinets. Also don't forget about your belongings in your outbuildings. Remember your homeowner's policy covers valuable items such as jewelry, furs, art, antiques, etc., only up to a small set dollar amount. If the cost of replacing them exceeds the limits that are listed in your policy, you may want to purchase scheduled personal property coverage.

After everything is documented, store your checklist, video, pictures, etc. in a safe place other than your home. If you would like to provide our agency with a copy, we will be happy to keep it in your file. Don't forget to update your property records when you purchase new furnishings and other items.

Please let us know if there is anything that we can do to help you with this. Feel free to call or email us! We appreciate your business!
